A MESSAGE FROM YOUR WBEA PRESIDENT...

By Chris Liebelt-Garcia WBEA President

Happy Holidays, and welcome to winter! After traveling to the State Conferences in Washington, California, and Idaho, I was thrilled to see business education flourishing. Although we all struggle with similar funding and classroom issues, we are a dedicated, passionate group. Our passion shows through the love of our students and the relevant curriculum we teach. As business educators, we know that our topics relate directly to career and life. In today's world, business education is broader with "business" teachers instructing in areas such as IT, web design, graphics, animation, coding, and more. I believe this only makes us a stronger and more relevant group. We need to be prepared for the future and industry with courses that are reflected in our schools. Along with our curriculum, most of our teachers also take on the adviser role for their Career and Technical Organizations (CTSO). Whether it is FBLA, PBL, or DECA, we give our "extra" time to advising and traveling with our members. In addition, some of our WBEA members hold leadership roles at the State level as Directors and CTSO Leads. We are all passionate and dedicated to business education. I appreciate all the hospitality given to me in my

Washington State Update By Ariel Dykstra President

Washington State is experiencing a very unique year as every district is rebalancing their budgets as the final 'fixes' from the McCleary Act are taking effect. One of the most publicized outcomes of the McCleary Act this last year was the impact to the salary schedules. Previously, there was a state wide salary schedule that was supplemented by district property taxes to determine individual salaries; however, this schedule no longer exists and essentially the property taxes that was marked specially for local educator salaries are now being allocated around the entire state so every district receives a uniform amount per teacher

Idaho Business Education Association Conference Report

By Casse Cook

Idaho held their annual Idaho Business Education Association Conference on November 8-10th in the beautiful city of Sun Valley Idaho. We had record breaking attendance of 112 attendees including the WBEA President Chris Liebelt-Garcia and Business Professionals of America Executive Director Dr. LouAnn Ross. Since this was my first time putting on a conference of this magnitude, I would like to thank Spencer Christensen, Brenda Jacobsen, and Sarah Pelayo for their countless hours of work in helping to prepare such a fun and informative conference. Our theme this year was “You Matter” because we felt like all teachers need to realize how important they are and how influential they can be to their students. Attendees were able to choose sessions from three different tracks. Along with many other great sessions, we were also introduced to Next Gen Personal Finance, educated on how to start your own Student Based Enterprise and given informative sessions by Microsoft and Adobe including everything from software updates to classroom teaching ideas. Certiport was also in attendance to provide a testing facility to any teacher/professor who wanted to become nationally certified in Microsoft and Adobe programs.

Montana Business Education Association

By Eric Swanson

The Montana Business Education Association (MBEA) held its annual business meeting Thursday, October 18 as part of the Montana ACTE 2018 Fall Institute in Billings.

Molly Barta, a MBEA Past President from Skyview

High School, presided over the awards presentations and recognized Montana Business Educators who retired at the end of the 2017-2018 school year— Darla Austin, Frenchtown High School; Sheri Campbell, Sweet Grass County High School; Marty Cochran,

(regardless of education or experience) and the district, along with the union, would determine what to pay employees. This was intended to help districts offer competitive wages while creating equity between districts who may have been able to supplement the salaries differently due to higher or lower property values. While many focused on the fact that many teachers around the state received a salary increase, the long term effects of the new schedules is yet to be determined and there is a wide array of speculations as to what will happen to the districts' financial stability in the years to come. One point of concern for WSBEA was determining how this would impact the individual teachers and what type of professional development districts would be offering their staff. Over the last couple of years, we noted that attendance at the state conference has decreased and many ... continued page 3

WSBEA members have stated that their districts are not releasing them to attend external professional development as they are offering more professional development in-house. While this remains a concern, we determined that the attendance at the conference this year did not drastically fluctuate and are hoping that a larger push of marketing will start to increase the state wide attendance at our annual conference again the coming years. It will definitely be interesting to see how the coming years unfold and how the districts and unions will work together to continue creating a positive environment for all employees (admin, classified, and certificated) and a stronger education for the coming generations that are impacted by the decisions that are out of their control.

The Idaho conference hosted two amazing networking socials where attendees could interact and trade ideas with each other and also discuss ideas with vendors. This was also the first year they we decided to host a Demo Slam where Vendors and anyone with good teaching ideas were given three minutes in front of the entire audience to showcase their ideas, after which the audience voted on the best presenter who was given a gift basket at the Friday night social. Congratulations to Jason Burton from Borah High School for being our first ever Demo Slam winner.

Overall I feel like the conference was a huge success. There are already plans being made to make it bigger and better for next year. I just want to thank all those who attended and even the ones who were not able to be there for their dedication and passion for what they do.

News from British Columbia

By Martin Runge, BCBEA President

BCBEA BizTech 2018 was a wonderful success.

The day flew by with wonderful workshop sessions covering topics crypto-currencies, false news workshops, coding, accounting, financial literacy, new curriculum discussions and more. On a day that saw so many different conferences around the province and in nearby States (Oct 18), the Conference team headed by Naresh and the team from Burnaby Central put on a show that was worth every dollar spent, and handed out prizes that were the envy of many (IPad, Hockey Tickets, Gift Cards and more). Combined with the wonderful sessions the and new connections left the seasoned and the new teachers with new and updated friends and materials that are relevant to the new curriculum

In a world of False News, Cybercrime, and financial blunders, this conference allowed teachers to hone up on the vital skills that that all students leave school with the skills supporting the British Columbia Business Educators to continue to offer outstanding insights for their clients...the students.

Kay Jorgenson, North Star High School; Dave Perius, Gardiner High School; and Kathy Ramage, Billings Senior High School—and also presented MBEA awards to two outstanding Montana business education professionals.

The 2018 MBEA Outstanding Secondary Business Teacher of the Year award was presented to Nicole Bogunovich of Billings West High School. While currently serving as the MBEA President, Nicole teaches a variety of business and finance courses, including dual credit courses, at Billings West, and advises the Billings West High School BPA chapter. Nicole has participated in a number of national-level professional development opportunities related to the teaching of financial literacy and personal finance and has served three years on the Western Business Education Association's Executive Board.

The 2018 Montana Business Education Association Young Teacher of the Year award was presented to Jordan Hasquet, also of Billings West High School. A graduate of (Missoula) Sentinel High School and the University of Montana, Jordan shares his experiences having lived and played professional basketball in Europe with his students. In his third year of teaching, Jordan began his teaching career at Stevensville High School where he revived the schools Business Professionals of America chapter and took the chapter's leadership team to the 2017 Montana BPA Fall Leadership Conference. At Billings West, Jordan serves as co-advisor for the Billings West BPA chapter in addition to his teaching duties.

Thank you MBEA retirees for your years of dedication, inspiration, leadership, and professionalism and congratulations to MBEA's truly-deserving award winners.

The Montana ACTE 2019 Fall Institute will be held in Great Falls, October 17-18, at the Heritage Inn.

California LET'S (Learn, Elevate, Teach, and Share) Discover your Inspiration

The California Business Education Association (CBEA) met in San Mateo, California, for a very successful state conference November 2-4. "LET'S (Learn, Elevate, Teach, and Share) Discover your Inspiration" was our

"The goal is a system that allows students to start here and finish there and have increased recognition" theme, and it allowed attendees to hear from a variety of presenters. We were honored to have Chris Liebelt-Garcia, WBEA President, attend the conference. We started with three business tours and several workshops on Friday. Some conference attendees toured a local Microsoft Store and had some product demonstrations. They also had an opportunity to win a store credit. Others toured the Hiller Aviation Museum and had lunch while watching planes take off from the San Francisco airport. Our last tour was to the local, family-owned Dominico Winery. Those touring had the opportunity to taste a variety of wines as well as purchase them at a discount. We heard from terrific keynote speakers. They included Jeff Butler, who spoke on "Preparing the 2020 Workforce for Business and Industry." He shared many life experiences that allowed everyone to see hiring and employment from a millennial's perspective. We also listened to Craig Harrison about "Creating a Culture of Excellence." Craig used storytelling and humor to make the point of how important excellence is at everything we do. Steve Wright, Deputy Sector Navigator for the ICT/Digital Media Sector, also gave a presentation on "The Future of Business Information Worker with Strong Workforce Investment." The Business Information Worker program is now ready for adoption by community colleges for their Business/Office Technology programs. We also heard from Peter McFadden, Education Solutions Specialist from Microsoft, who spoke on "Positive Engagement in a Digital World." ... Continued Page 6

December 10, 2018

President Donald Trump announced that he will seek a 5 percent cut across most of the Cabinet departments including the U.S. Department of Education for Fiscal Year 2020. In September, Congress approved Fiscal Year 2019 Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education appropriations bill that will increase funding for the Perkins Basic State Grant by $70 million--bringing the total to nearly $1.263 billion for next school year (2019-20)!

Other funding gains include ESSA Title IV-A Student Support and Academic Enrichment Grants, Pell Grants, Apprenticeship Opportunities, and Adult Education. There is also a consolidation plan for the Office of Career, Technical, and Adult Education (OCTAE) with the Office of Postsecondary Education into a new Office of Postsecondary and Lifelong Learning.

Make it a point to contact your Members in Congress to remind them to increase funding for Perkins. Let them know that Business Education does Peter discussed with us the skills necessary in our ever-changing digital world. We had 34 different breakouts available for attendees. Some topics included preparing students for the workplace, collaboration with your colleagues, Canvas tools, Microsoft products, entrepreneurship, certification, and active shooter training. Exhibitors were able to display their products throughout Saturday, and some even provided more in-depth content within a session. The ISBE booth promoted the upcoming Kefalonia, Greece conference and generated enthusiasm from conference participants wanting to attend.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP AND WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU!

Jaci Jones, Membership Chair

What is your national professional teachers' organization? Why should you be a member? Why should you promote it to others?

As teachers, we see numerous acronyms daily. Do you know many of the educational acronyms you see? Some of the most important acronyms to any successful business educator should be their state, regional, and national professional organizations. WBEA stands for Western Business Education Association and is your regional organization that provides leadership opportunities, conferences, and much more for your professional development and peer networking. It encompasses much of the western United States as well as Alberta, British Columbia, Yukon, Guam, and others. NBEA stands for National Business Education Association and is the umbrella organization for your state and regional associations.

Here are a few of the reasons why individuals should join WBEA and NBEA:

- Opportunities to serve as a state, regional, or national officer
- Professional, hands-on learning conferences, annual national convention
- Numerous opportunities to network with colleagues

National Business Education Association

Educating for Success in Business and Life

- Curriculum materials
- Professional journal, newsletter and Yearbook
- Social media presence with Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter
- Opportunity to peruse new textbooks, software, and hardware
- Business-industry link
- And many others

I challenge you to reach out to your colleagues, friends, and new business educators in your state. Share the many reasons you decided to become a member and why you are currently a member. What a great influence you can be.

WBEA 2019 PDLT

Reminder to all Western Region Members!

WBEA 2019 PDLT INFORMATION Keith Hannah, PDLT Director

The WBEA 2019 Professional Development Leadership Training (PDLT) is a single training session for Presidents-elect, Membership Directors, as well as all potential leaders within your S/T/Ps. The 2019 workshop will be led by Diane Fisher, NBEA Past-President, Karen O'Connor, WBEA President-elect; and Keith Hannah, PDLT Director. PDLT will be held Friday morning, February 17, from 7:30 a.m. until 11:15 a.m.

Please sign up! This workshop will not only provide leadership training but also more in-depth direction and help for those assuming or thinking about leadership positions. WBEA only meets once a year; hence it is extremely important that Presidents-elect and Membership Directors work with the current WBEA President-elect and WBEA Membership Director throughout the year in order to complete Programs of Work and reports for the NBEA office. This workshop is the best venue that we have available for people to communicate with one another, to ask questions, and to ultimately understand professional opportunities available and their respective contributions to building membership in NBEA, WBEA, and our state associations. We provide information in this workshop that will be needed throughout the year. Additionally, attendees will have the opportunity to meet current WBEA officers, the NBEA Executive Director, the NBEA President, as well as the NBEA Past-president. Our goal is to make WBEA stronger. This is a first step to making a stronger organization, and we need your help. Please ask your Presidents-elect, Membership Directors, and at least one potential leader from your S/T/P to check the PDLT option on their conference registration form and send it in by January 15, 2017. We appreciate your encouraging attendance at this event, for your professional commitment to WBEA, and your leadership in your individual S/T/P.

WBEA 2020– California Just a blink away!

We are all very much looking forward to the February conference in Tucson, where we can refresh and renew our inspirations and our friendships. I remember my first conference for California Business Education Association in 2007. I didn't know a soul at the start, but I was thoroughly impressed with all the events that unfolded and came away with friends for life, and not least, an unending passion for participating in my professional organization.

Being a member of CBEA led to becoming a member of WBEA/NBEA, and as you read in the last newsletter, also being a member in ISBE. I cannot imagine my career without participation in these organizations!

The specific events of that first conference over a decade ago are a bit of a blur now, but one vision really stands out. At the end of the conference the president asked for all the conference committee to come up to the front to be recognized. I was amazed that when all the contributors to making that conference a success strung shoulder to shoulder across the entire room! From that moment, I wanted to be a part of that great effort and it has brought many more friendships. From this time, I have been involved every year with our CBEA conference in many different roles from conference chair to program to hospitality. Each role brings new adventures and the reward of a job well done in a great team by the end.

Whether this is your first conference or your twentieth, by the end you know that our conferences reflect passion and hard work from many who already tend to be up to their eyeballs in their field as teachers. We are doers and we love making new friends who love what we love!

I expect that plans are almost complete for our WBEA conference in Tucson, and soon we will enjoy the efforts of that team. Looking ahead, our beautiful and newly renovated hotel in South Bay, two miles from the beach is booked for 2020. It is now time to gather the next conference team! Please consider helping California host the 2020 conference by joining us. This is a multi-state conference and we are happy to have a multi-state team. From conference co-chair all the way to the website, we are looking for YOUR passion to help us keep the WBEA conference standard high. Talk with me in Tucson or Contact koconnor@cerrocoso.edu if you have passion and skills to offer.

Think – California Here I Come 2020!
